Order form attached to invoice (5048) says 44 shipped of 3208 ordered on Sept. 23, 1972; letter attached to invoice (5451) comments that the scarlet & gold has no letter on file to show that they do not have to fulfil the agreement to buy 5000 ashtrays; other letters comment on the poor quality of the gold lettering on some plates (16 April 1973), faulty plates (10 June 1973) the fact that some gold printing is wider than the rest (n.d. ca. Jan. 1973) & that sales were not going well (10 June 1973); too cluttered (16 April 1973); ending of letter 6 Feb. 1973 "THANKS,(this machine is being run by underpaid, overworked not so smart secretary)" where Donna Coulter comments on orders coming in slower than anticipated

One recorded event showed that the collection agency received a 15% commission on the amount collected. Mr. W.C. Echlin, Edmonton, fell behind in his payments and the account was turned over to "Brown, MacLean & Lutes" - Barristers in Medicine Hat for collection. They regularly collected $10.00 from him turning $8.50 of that over to Hycroft, the remainder being their commission. Around June 1965 Hycroft offered to settle his account of 149.14 in full for a payment of $75.00, but this never happened as again on 13 Dec. 1966 when the account was down to $46.14 Hycroft offered to take $40.00 in full payment if paid before Christmas.
